

Olivier d'Argenlieu is the founder of the World Citizens March towards the Political Unity of the Planet, based in France. He did national service as a paratrooper in Algeria, and became an engineer by profession. He is a long-standing member of Echanges et Projets, a group founded by Jacques Delors, and sits on the Versailles Municipal Council as a Socialist member. He has also written a book, 'The Amazing Power of World Citizens.'