

Bob Flax, Ph.D., is President of the Democratic World Federalists, based in San Francisco. He is a licensed psychologist, organization development consultant, activist, and teacher. He has a B.A. in psychology and philosophy from New York University, an M.A. in psychology from Long Island University, an M.A. in organization development from Sonoma State University, and a Ph.D. from Saybrook Institute.

Dr. Flax began his career as a psychotherapist in the late 1970's. His initial work focused on psychotherapy integration and therapist growth and development. He expanded his focus to include larger systems and studied organization development and conflict resolution. He has worked in a wide range of settings, including businesses, non-profits, intentional communities, and over 16 years with the California State Prison system. Moving to still larger systems, he turned his attention to the way we work together as citizens of the world. Bob has participated in international citizen diplomacy projects and is currently designing a course in World Federalism for Saybrook University, where he has been on the faculty for over 18 years.

Dr. Flax lives in a cohousing community in the San Francisco Bay Area and enjoys outdoor adventure activities, swing dancing and meditation.
